Where Do We Go From Here? Stan Bigelow - President CMA

Many of you are aware that the Master Plan and Expansion Agreement was defeated April 24 by a vote of 57 to 25. The Expansion Plan seemed to leave too many questions unanswered in the minds of the CMA voters.

Now, where do we go from here? I believe it is time for us to give attention to many areas of mutual concern which we have largely neglected while giving so much of our time to studying and responding to the Expansion Agreement. Some of these areas of concern which have been raised by many of you include:

+ What about building a free-form swimming area nestled in the woods - in the vicinity of the tennis courts and barn which would provide a natural meeting place for CMA members and enable us to get acquainted. It might include a screened-in gazebo, barbeque pit, etc.

+ Could we take the money we are now spending on the lake (1982/83 - $13,000) and use it more productively developing our own recreational area?

+ How about forming work parties to help build our recreational area, improve our trails, preserve areas from erosion, etc? Remember folks, all this land is our front and back yard; we should keep it looking as natural as possible.

+ What about CMA barn-dances, picnics, social hours? These need not be formally organized - we just need a means of letting each other know when our owners would like to have a group over for an evening together or would like to initiate a barn-dance, etc.

+ Some have suggested that CMA take a more active role in the rental program - protecting our homes and environment - while bringing in an income which many of us need in order to keep our mountain homes.

+ Don't we need to give a little more thought to fire-safety measures and theft protection?

+ We could use your help right now on committees empowered to deal with various aspects of CMA life. The present Board is convinced that serving on a committee is a natural step in preparing CMA people to serve as Board Members.

To help us get the ball rolling in these areas of concern, the Board of Directors invites you to attend the CMA Board Meeting, May 29 (9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.) at the home of Stanley Bigelow (tall house straight up Herbert Quick Drive), Phone: 258-1611; but most of all, bring your family to a pot-luck at the home of Lee and Judy Jolles ("10" Mountainside Road, Phone: 258-4433, 12:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.). This get-together will be looking forward to ideas that should stimulate you as it did the few of us who have already done a little talking about these matters.

Some of you we've never met - make sure you're here at 12:30 p.m., we would like to meet you!

INFO FROM YOUR SITE MANAGER

CRI has informed us that they have increased their liability coverage to 1½ million. The leases on the barn and tennis courts with CRI are covered by CRI's liability policy and CMA is named as first insured in the event of any claims. CMA's coverage of 1 million would take affect after CRI's coverage. This would apply to claims arising from CRI or their guests' use of the above facilities. As of this issue, CRI has decided not to sign the lease offered by CMA for CRI's use of the hiking trails and pastures. To protect our liability, it is necessary to erect signs indicating that this is private property and tresspassing is not allowed.

An engineer, retained by CMA, met with Dick Minnamon May 5 to review and evaluate our water system. He will submit written recommendations by the end of next week.

Last month Stephen Crane's house was broken in to, (Lot P 2). He lost approximately $6000 worth of items. The CMA Board authorized a $250 reward to be posted for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the parties involved. The Board held open the possibility to increase the amount to $500. Action will be taken at the next Board Meeting, May 29. CRI has also posted a $500 reward.
