Fall 2022

Autumn Air

from CMA Board

Fall is officially here with its cooler temperatures and fantastic foliage! It's the season of festivals and fun starting off with two CMA events on October 1. Join friends and neighbors at the very first Pot Luck Brunch, hosted by Eric Lienhard and Heidi Splane of Great Paws Lodge (G-5). Use the handy online form to sign up for pot luck provisions.

Get a good carb load at brunch so you're all set for the Loop the Loop Family Fun Run & Walk later that morning. Details on both events on the following pages. Be sure to bring your waiver form for the Fun Run & Walk. Both events are rain or shine.

Take a break that same afternoon at free community event: The Mountains of Bluegrass and Praise at Coolfont Resort Pavilion area from 1pm to 5 pm (Donations benefit the Morgan County Homeless Coalition).

If you can get your feet to work again, the last Art in the Park is the next day, Sunday, October 2, in BS State Park.

There's nearly a week to fully recover before the 47th Apple Butter Festival on October 8-9. It's a whole weekend with lots to see, do, and buy from the displays, vendors, and shops downtown. There's even a parade! More info at www.facebook.com/AppleButterFestivalWV.

In late October, take a tour of more than a dozen local artists' studios on the 2022 Berkeley Springs Studio Tour. You can preview the work of several of the participating artists at the Ice House. See full article on the next page.

Get up close with the beautiful foliage - CMA hiking trails are open year round and provide fun for all. Pick up a Community Map and Trail Guide at the entrance gazebo. Get out there!

Berkeley Springs Studio Tour

by Rosemary Bigelow, O-4

Berkeley Springs is home to many fine artists, some of regional and national renown. One of the great fall festivals in Morgan County is the self-guided Berkeley Springs Studio Tour. You can visit local artists in their studios and see how they produce some of their products. You will find contemporary and traditional art and fine crafts in many different media available for sale. There are eight studios with 14 artists participating this year.

Did you know that several tour artists reside right here in CMA! Homeowner Craig Deane (T-2) is back on the tour this year with his wonderful wood products (Craig's Creations, Tour Stop I, 358 Salmon Lane). Rosemary Bigelow's (O-4) studio, (My Grandmother's Lace, Tour Stop K, La Verdad, 5 Mountainside Rd, interior furnishings) will again be hosting fellow CMA artist, Andy Zuckerman (T-6), and his line of whimsical birdhouses (Cool Dad's Creatures) along with a jeweler and woodworker.

Check out our new 2022 Berkeley Springs Studio Tour video showcasing all the tour artists:

The tour headquarters at the Berkeley Springs Ice House Gallery is a great place to start. Docents will provide tour information and maps and you can see samples of many of the participants' work.

For more information

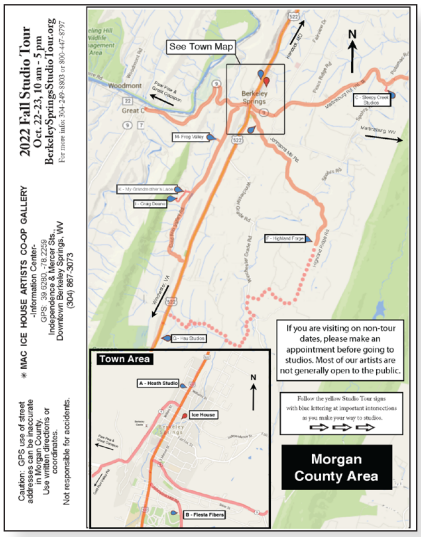

Check out the tour website at berkeleyspringsstudiotour.org where you will find detailed directions, maps, artist information, and COVID Guidelines. Follow us on the Berkeley Springs Studio Tour Facebook page or call Rosemary Bigelow at 240-675-3930 if you have questions.

[Septic] Tanks a Lot!

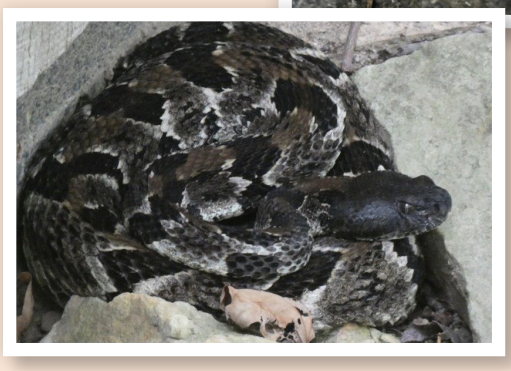

CMAWS would like to thank our owners for complying with the CMA Septic System Maintenance Policy and having their septic systems serviced at regular intervals. We are current with all servicing and have only four owners due for servicing before the end of 2022. Next year will be busy with nearly 20 properties due for servicing.

Owners are responsible for scheduling and paying for service on their septic system. They must provide a copy of the servicing invoice to CMAWS for recordkeeping.

Is your system due for service? You can find information on the Septic System Maintenance Policy on the website under Association/Governing Documents, then under Policy Resolutions. If yours is due, you will be notified by CMAWS with plenty of lead time. You can also contact Cathy Levey at 304-258-5481 or mccm2012@hotmail.com if you don't want to wait to be notified. Certainly, owners can opt to have their systems serviced more often than the CMA requirement - and some do!

In case you missed these...

The Latest and Greatest!

by Myrna Wohl, E-4

Wow! Have you been to Dexter's Laburgertory yet???? It is quite an experience!

Entering Dexter's is a shock. It's bright and clean and the friendliest place in town. Everyone behind the counter seems to be in a competition to say "Hello" first.

Dexter's is just a carry-out now but plans to open a big area for eat-in dining complete with pool tables and shuffleboard for adults, and video games for the kids. The owners, locals Candice and Dave, hope to have karaoke and other entertaining programs to make Dexter's the "place to go!"

Dexter's is reasonably priced, the portions are very large, and the ingredients fresh and delicious. They have an in-house baker to make cakes and ice-cream desserts to order.

Right now, Dexter's has 21 appetizers, as well as sandwiches and subs, platters, burgers, and desserts. They serve Hershey ice-cream eleven ways, plus toppings.

Here's the best news: although they are just doing carry-out in Berkeley Springs, Dexter's will deliver to Coolfont! Enjoy!

Directory Updates

There are no directory updates for this quarter.

The Communications Committee is putting the finishing touches on the new, online member directory. You can check it out on the CMA Website under Owners/Membership Directory. The password is the same as Owner/Documents.

Farewell, Newsletter

As noted in the Summer 2022 issue, this will be the last issue of 'Round the Mountainside newsletter. Electronic communication through Google Groups, Facebook, email, social media, and other online resources has supplanted the formatted community newsletter.

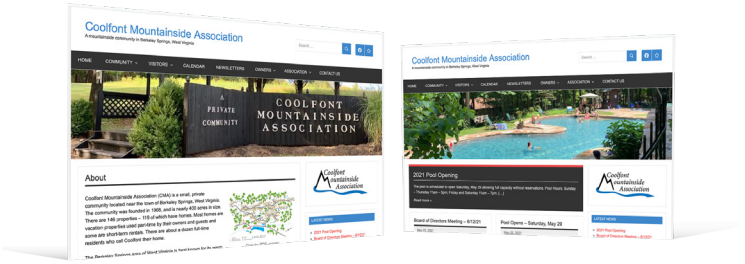

It has been a pleasure - and a task - to work on the newsletter for the past 4+ years. Thank you to our community members for their submissions of stories, photos, recipes, and information.

You'll find information on upcoming events on the CMA Website community calendar. There's also posts about latest happenings under Latest News on the right side of every CMA webpage. If you have a question or comment, you can contact the CMA board through the website link or use the Contact Us Form on the website.

You may wish to cut out the community contacts list on the last page and keep it handy on your fridge. Of course, all that contact information is available on the CMA website.
